VOTE AGAINST THE SALOON IN OGDEN

Betterment League Is Pursuing Its Fight Against the Liquor Dealers.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Aug. 11.—Fully seventy-five people attended a mass meeting tonight at the Weber academy, called by the Ogdén Betterment league, at which a petition asking for reforms and an amendment to the liquor ordinance was read. In the absence of Apostle C. D. McKay, president of the league, C. C. Richards presided.

Secretary John D. Bluth, before reading the petition, explained that 134 canvassers had been engaged to get the voluntary views of the people of the city on the following questions: "Are you in favor of the closing of saloons between the hours of 7 p. m. and midnight?" (2) "Are you in favor of limiting the number of saloons to one to each thousand population?" (3) "Are you in favor of removing booths and wine rooms from cafes and saloons and the separation of all restaurants from the saloon business?"

The total number of people interviewed according to the canvassers, was 6735. Of this number 467 were between the ages of 18 and 21 years of age. The total number of people interviewed was 591 per cent of the total vote cast at the municipal election last year and 87 per cent of the vote cast for congressman in 1908.

Answering the first question, 5439 voted in the affirmative and 714 in the negative. On the second question, 5479 voted in the affirmative, 516 in the negative, and 553 declined to answer. On the third question, 5531 voted in the affirmative, 457 in the negative, and 567 declined to answer. The question and 21 suggested other changes. Of the total number interviewed, 5966 signed the statement and are willing to have their names made public.

The first speaker introduced by President Richards was the Rev. G. W. McKay, of the First Methodist church. The Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin and Attorney A. W. Agee were the other speakers. All of the speakers directed their remarks against the liquor traffic and demanded that certain reforms be enacted, so long as the saloons are tolerated.

A member of the league informed the chairman that Mayor William Glassman had declared that the petition would be thrown in the waste basket, when it is presented to the mayor and city council. Attorney A. W. Agee replied that the heads of certain officials would also go in the waste basket if the petition in this large number of voters was ignored.

VERDICT IS RETURNED IN NOVEL DAMAGE CASE

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Aug. 11.—For one beating in which a carpenter's rule was used as a weapon, $200 for damages and character by reason of alleged insulting language and charges preferred, 1 cent; for damages said to have been done to the furniture during the fracas, nothing.

Such is the finding of a jury in the district court, which heard the testimony in the suit for damages brought by Mrs. A. C. Riley against George C. Streeter on three separate counts.

Fraud Is Charged.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Aug. 11.—Upon complaint of L. B. Best, proprietor of the Best saloon, a warrant was issued by the municipal court today for the arrest of J. T. Jones, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Jones, cashed a check for $200 at the saloon, July 20, representing that he had ample funds to cover it. The bank, however, refused to cash the check. Jones lives at Hooper and is said to be well connected.

Embezzlement Charged.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Aug. 11.—Alleging that he collected $40 belonging to the local order of Moose, recently organized at Ogden, and has failed to make an accounting, a warrant charging embezzlement was issued by the county attorney today against C. H. Walker. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Tom Burk this morning and is being held at the county jail pending a preliminary hearing, which will be held before Judge Murphy tomorrow.

OGDEN MAN FACING SERIOUS CHARGES

Said to Have Committed Assault and Battery on Young Girl.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Aug. 11.—Serious charges of brutality against Albert Thomas are embodied in a complaint issued today at the solicitation of Heloise Runney, a young girl of Ogden.

The complaint charges Thomas with assault and battery. According to the girl's story, she went driving with Thomas Monday night. They stopped at a resort in Ogden canyon, where they became intoxicated. Before reaching the resort, Thomas became insulting in his actions, according to the girl, and when she resented his actions he struck her with his doubled fist, knocking her out of the buggy. Heloise, who was unable to find her way home, was left in a desolate part of the city. She wandered about until she found the home of Anton Von Benham on Jackson avenue near Sullivan avenue, where she was taken in and spent the night. The girl came on to the city the next night, accompanied by Von Benham, and recovered her hat from the buggy in which she had been driving.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT MAY RESULT FATALLY

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Aug. 11.—Willie Newman, a ten-year-old boy of this city, is suffering from a fractured skull and is in a critical condition, the result of a runaway accident yesterday. The lad was riding in a buggy with Robert Wilson, an employee of the Becker Brewery company, when suddenly one of the wheels of the vehicle collapsed, throwing the buggy into the air and sending it careening through the streets. Wilson was thrown to the ground and received a fractured skull. The buggy was wrecked and the driver was dragged for some distance. He is under the care of physicians, who say the case is a serious one.

OGDEN, Aug. 11.—For over a year, George Messersmith has failed to provide for his wife the necessities of life, according to a complaint for divorce filed with the county clerk this afternoon by Alice Messersmith.

HEIGHO IS HELD TO STAND TRIAL

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Id., Aug. 11.—Today at Weiser, E. E. Heigho, president of the Pacific and Idaho & Northern railroad, was held for trial in the district court on the charge of manslaughter. He was released on $5000 bail.

Idaho Railroad Official Faces Charge of Manslaughter at Weiser.

The accusation against Heigho arose from the death from heart failure of Mrs. Sylvia Riegleman of Omaha, who was visiting her son, E. E. Heigho, at Weiser, when heigho appeared at the Barton hotel, called Barton out and assaulted him. In the course of the fight, it is alleged, Heigho acted as though he were about to shoot. Mrs. Riegleman fainted and died in twenty minutes.

CONCRETE WALL GAVE WAY, SMASHING DOWN THE ROOF

Special to The Tribune.

BRIGHAM CITY, Aug. 11.—Yesterday afternoon an employee of the Marion Orchard company reported at the office of the city engineer that the roof of the huge barn he had been working on had given away. The company's premises had been given away. The company, having decided to enter the dairy business in connection with the fruit industry, was engaged in having large up-to-date cow stables erected. The concrete walls of the barn, which had been erected in a length and it appeared upon investigation that the carpenters engaged in placing the roof on had neglected to properly nail the joists and rafters, and the north wall finally gave way, letting the roof crash down on the two workmen, who were killed. The time in shining the men had a very narrow escape from being crushed under the falling material, but escaped with but few scratches.

RAIN PLAYS HAVOC IN THE COTTONWOODS

Special to The Tribune.

MURRAY, Aug. 11.—The heavy rain of today played havoc in Big Cottonwood canyon. The water was being driven out of their camping grounds. The rain fell in torrents all afternoon and caused a great deal of discomfort among the vacation parties scattered along the canyon. At Brighton there was a regular deluge. Great streams of water forced down the mountain side, dislodging the streams and putting a stop to fishing for a few days at least. In Little Cottonwood canyon practically nothing could be done with the ore shipments. Work was delayed all this afternoon, the heavily laden wagons being suffering with tuberculous, and, therefore, they made the inspection. Among the many which were inspected no disease was found.

Inspecting for Tuberculosis.

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, Aug. 11.—R. V. Sevy of Richfield and Dr. Broadhurst of Mt. Pleasant, both inspectors of the government, have been in the city during the week inspecting many of the cattle. It was rumored that many of the cattle in this town were suffering with tuberculous, and, therefore, they made the inspection. Among the many which were inspected no disease was found.

Assault Charge at Eureka.

Special to The Tribune.

EUREKA, Aug. 11.—Samuel Hooper, a bank clerk, was placed under bond in the amount of $500 for the charge of assault on a charge of assault on the fifteen-year-old daughter of Louis Gini, who conducts a fruit store in this city. It is alleged that Hooper attacked the girl in a photograph gallery, where she was employed, during the absence of the proprietor.

The Preliminary Hearing of Hooper Will Be Held Next Tuesday.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Aug. 11.—The deal by which the directors of the Weber club have obtained a site for a modern and up-to-date clubhouse has been consummated with the formal delivery of the deeds to the building lots on Twenty-fourth street, immediately east of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The property was purchased from Charles A. Nelson of Nelson & Fell Ivermyers. The consideration is $10,500.
